PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1918

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Mr. Hershel Humble, who married Miss Sarah Thompson, of this city, left Saturday from Camp Forest, Ga., for an Eastern port, from which he will sail shortly for France.

Mr. William Kenney Thomas, of near Hutchison, left last week for the Aviation Camp of the Officers Reserve Corps, at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. He was accompanied as far as Cincinnati by his mother, Mrs. William B. Thomas, who visited relatives there.

A postcard from Mr. Bruce Preston, of Ashland, stated that he had enlisted in the United States Navy. Young Preston is a son of Mrs. Henry Preston, of Ashland, formerly Miss Allie Miller, of Millersburg, and a nephew of Mr. Bruce Miller, of the Kentuckian-Citizen.

Non-com. officer Roy Sharp, who has been stationed at Paris for several weeks as recruiting officer, during which time he has given excellent service, has been transferred to Jackson, Ky. Mr. Sharp made a large circle of friends during his stay in Paris by his gentlemanly qualities. He was the right man for the place.

Corp. Allen Huddleston, Sergt. Harry Barlow and Private Mike Shannon were at home on furlough Sunday from Camp Zachary Taylor. Sergt. Barlow says the colored draftees from Bourbon county are the happiest bunch of men he has yet seen in the camp. They are always in good humor, and furnish all kinds of entertainment at the camp.

The Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40 which left Camp Zachary Taylor, sometime ago, is temporarily encamped at Camp Mills, New York. Baldwin Woods, who was a recent guest of his mother, Mrs. Jack Woods, writes that he is now with the Unit, and that they are all busily engaged in anticipation of receiving orders to embark for France.

A letter received by THE NEWS from Jos. W. Davis, who is at the Great Lakes Training Camp, states that he is in good health, happy and pleased with his work. He is now out of quarantine and has been transferred to the Aviation Division. He said he was developing into a good house-girl, as he had just finished cleaning house, washing windows, etc.

Henry E. Everman, son of Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of Paris, who has been stationed at Camp Dewey, at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, near Chicago, has been transferred to the U. S. S. Wolverine, at Detroit, Mich. Young Everman wrote his mother to be sure to notify THE NEWS of his change of address as he had missed several copies of the paper, which is his estimation, amounted almost to a calamity.

Frequent changes in the army camps make it a hard matter for THE NEWS to keep up with the soldier boys. Numerous complaints have reached us that papers have not been received. This trouble is due mainly to the fact that the changes from one camp to another give the boys little chance to advise us. Please drop us a postal card at once notifying us of change of address so the papers may be received on time.

They're going over, or have already gone probably by this time, from Camp Zachary Taylor. Mr. Lee Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Turney and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Turney motored to the camp Sunday to visit Private Jack Turney and the other Bourbon county boys there. They found them as busy as bees, but happy and contented. When they left Sunday night the camp was fairly buzzing with bustle and activity, the soldiers packing up preparatory to being transferred to some Southern camp. It is probable that ere this the Kentucky boys will be en route to another camp. Press dispatches in the daily papers have forecast such a move for some time.

Private Maurice Burnbaugh and Top Sergeant J. Miller Burnbaugh, both former residents of Paris, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burnbaugh, in Lexington, this week, before returning to army duties. Maurice Burnbaugh, who was formerly a member of the Lexington Herald staff, is in the Intelligence Department of the army service at Ft. Thomas. Sergt. Miller Burnbaugh is a number of the Aviation Corps, and is stationed at Camp Green, near Charlotte, North Carolina. His visit was in the nature of a farewell, as he will leave soon with his command for duty in France.

At the L. & N. station in this city, Saturday morning, while the train was being made up to carry the colored draftees to Camp Zachary Taylor, one of the colored drafted men from Carlisle, while stretching himself in conversation with a Paris draftee. He complimented the way the Paris men were taken care of and noted the presence of the Liberty Drum Corps, the city officials and other evidences of appreciation. The Paris man told him of the send-off Paris always gives its drafted men and spoke of the supper tendered them on Friday night. The Carlisle man rubbed his chin reflectively a few moments, and as he turned

PARIS PEOPLE INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Miss Della Mastin, of Paris, suffered a broken arm, and Miss Elise Heller and Messrs. Sam and Will Mastin, all of Paris, were slightly bruised as a result of an automobile collision at a sharp curve on the road near Corinth, in Grant county, Saturday.

The party left Paris early Saturday morning in the Mastin machine for a visit to friends in Covington and Newport. Nothing happened until they were approaching a sharp curve on the road between Georgetown and Corinth. At this point the curve is so abrupt that it is almost impossible for the driver of a machine to see what is approaching from the opposite direction. When the Paris party reached the curve Mr. Sam Mastin, who was driving, repeatedly sounded his horn. Suddenly a machine dashed from the opposite side, and before either driver could avert it the big machine crashed into the one in which the Paris party were riding, smashing and damaging it and throwing the occupants out. The big machine, which it was ascertained afterwards belonged to William Long, of Lexington, was on the wrong side of the road, according to the members of the Paris party. Miss Mastin's right arm was broken. Mr. Sam Mastin sustained a sprained wrist, his brother, Mr. Will Mastin and Miss Heller were scratched and bruised, but otherwise uninjured.

The occupants of the Lexington machine came to the aid of the injured and did all they could. Medical aid was summoned, and a machine sent from Georgetown to take the Paris people back. There they were met later by Mr. Walter Mastin, of Paris, who had been quickly notified, and taken back to Paris. The damaged machine was brought to Georgetown, and later sent to this city for repairs. Miss Mastin was reported yesterday as resting very comfortably.

COMPANIES WILL ADVANCE INSURANCE TEN PER CENT.

Insurance companies have notified the State Rating Board that a blanket increase of 10 per cent will be made on all classes of fire insurance, with the exception of farm property, July 1. An increase of 10 per cent will be made on hall insurance, the order to become effective July 10. At present the insurance companies claim that they are losing money on hall insurance, and as there are only eight companies writing this class of insurance, the State Rating Board will make some kind of terms with the companies in order to protect the farmers.

away, said sadly, "Well, sah, when dey gets ready to ship dese niggahs at Carlisle, all dey does is ter back up de train an' say, 'Here, you niggahs, git on bo'ad and scoot!'"

Mr. Carl Barton, who has been in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville, at this point, has gone to his old home in Mt. Olivet. Mr. Bratton is in the draft call from Robertson county, and will leave with the other selectives from that county on June 28 for Camp Zachary Taylor. During his residence in Paris, Mr. Bratton was a member of the clerical force of the Louisville & Nashville.

The boys at Camp Taylor say that our Jack Turney is simply irrepressible. A few nights ago Jack received a pressing invitation to attend services at the Y. M. C. A. headquarters in the camp. He attended and listened respectfully to the speaker who had been exhorting the boys to be true representatives of American manhood. At the finish of a fervid appeal the speaker asked, "Boys, are you saved?" There was not a very enthusiastic reply. Jack was sitting at the end of a row of khaki-clad "boys" close to the rostrum. Something in his beaming countenance must have struck the speaker forcibly. Turning and pointing his finger directly at Jack, he asked, pointedly: "Young man, are you saved?"

"Dont know, sir, just yet—the war isn't over yet," replied Jack.

And then the khaki-clad men had a hard time keeping their faces straight, while the speaker resumed his efforts along other lines.

Mr. Nathan H. Bayless, who recently enlisted in the army service and was sent to Ft. Thomas, is now stationed at Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia, where he has been placed in the Veterinary Corps. Mr. Bayless, in a recent letter to his friend, Mr. Joe B. Smith, of East Paris, says in part:

"I am certainly in one hot place. I verily believe it is about 100 in the shade here right now.... I am located here last Sunday from Ft. Thomas, Ky. I have been placed in the Veterinary Corps, and I think I am going to like it very much. It is quite a new organization in the army service, having been in operation only about four months.

I think Stoner Keller would like this branch of the service. If he goes in the army he ought to ask to be put in the Veterinary Corps.... I have been drilling on foot in the morning, and in the afternoon we have drills on horseback.... I don't think we will get a chance to go across the big pond before the middle of August or the first of September.... Please step in THE BOURBON NEWS office and have the paper sent to me for a year. That paper would be better than a letter from home to me.... Hear someone calling me and I know that means duty, so will write again."

MR. HANCOCK WANTS THE SPORT TO CONTINUE.

A communication has been received by Gen. W. B. Haldeman, of Louisville, a member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, from A. B. Hancock, of Paris, an extensive breeder of thoroughbred horses in Kentucky and Virginia. In writing from New York, Mr. Hancock says:

"Gen. W. B. Haldeman, Louisville, Ky.—Dear General: If racing should cease for the duration of the war, wholesale castration of the best colts in the country would follow, in order that they could be kept together like fillies or cattle; as it is much cheaper than keeping them as entire horses. The result would be that many of the best horses, like Roamer, Borrow, Old Rosebud, Boots, Stromboli and others, would be unable to reproduce their good qualities in the horses of the United States. The Remount Department at Washington can testify as to the scarcity of horses in this country such as the men who followed Morgan rode, and also as to the availability of thoroughbred stallions capable of siring such horses.

"When the war is over we will be unable to get them in other countries, as many breeders there are, on account of the scarcity of feed, either not breeding their mares, or are growing a lot of inferior and under-bred stock. This has been especially noticeable in the yearlings imported in the last few years from France. The English are declining to part with their best at any price. It will be especially harmful at this time if Kentucky, the thoroughbred nursery of America, should now set such an example as is proposed. With best wishes, sincerely yours,

"A. B. HANCOCK."

COOP & LENT CIRCUS WILL POSITIVELY SHOW HERE TO-DAY.

In some unaccountable manner a rumor gained circulation Sunday and yesterday to the effect that the Coop & Lent Circus, which had been billed to appear here to-day, had been quarantined at Nicholasville, Versailles and Shelbyville, all on the same day and at the same time, on account of an outbreak of small pox.

Nothing further from the truth could have gained circulation. A representative of the circus was in Paris yesterday and confirmed the report that the show would positively appear here to-day, a fact which by this time needs no confirmation, as it is here. He stated that the only time they have ever been delayed was when there was a slight disarrangement of the gear of one of the big motor trucks, which required some time to repair.

The admission to the performances this afternoon and to-night will be fifty cents, including the war tax, for adults, and thirty cents for children under twelve years of age.

ARGUMENT BEGUN IN HARVEST FIELD RESULTS IN DEATH

As the result of an argument which began in the harvest field and was renewed sometime Friday morning, T. J. Gattrell was shot and killed by Joseph Layton at the latter's home near Kiserton, this county. The two men are first cousins.

According to the testimony before the Coroner's jury, Gattrell assaulted Layton with a stone, while Layton and Mrs. Layton were sitting on the front porch at their home. Layton secured a revolver and fired a shot at Gattrell's feet to frighten him. Gattrell renewed the assault with a fusilade of stones, one of which grazed Mrs. Layton's head. Layton again fired, the bullet taking effect in Gattrell's abdomen. The injured man sank to the ground. Mrs. Layton ran to a neighbor's house, over half a mile and telephoned for a physician, but Gattrell died before the latter reached his side. Coroner Davis was notified and empannelled a jury, conducted an inquest, which resulted in Layton's exoneration, the verdict being that he acted in self-defense.

Layton surrendered to Sheriff Wm. G. McClinton, and was brought to Paris. He was at once taken before the Grand Jury, which was in session. That body, after hearing the evidence, refused to indict Layton and he was discharged from custody, returning to his home.

Gattrell was a native of Harrison county, but had long resided at Blue Lick Springs, in Nicholasville, and in Robertson county. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Sallie Layton Gattrell, and one brother, Frank Gattrell. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Geo. W. Davis, in this city, and prepared for burial. The funeral and brial took place Sunday at Piqua, in Robertson county.

LOCAL MEN FIGURE IN DAY'S OIL NEWS.

The Oil World, published at Lexington, and devoted to the Kentucky oil industry, has the following:

"The Bourbon Oil and Development Company's No. 2 J. G. Rogers well in the Estill county field, is credited with 25 barrels.

"Felix Renick, of the McCombs Oil Company, has relinquished his office duties at the Louisville office temporarily to John Price. Felix owns a threshing machine and is now operating in Clark county, wearing his bull-rush hat and overalls. He is too busy even to accept money. It is possible, however, that he would spare a few minutes' time for a hazel-eyed-beauty."

The following names have been added to the list of limit subscribers since Saturday: Mrs. A. G. Jones, Miss Ina Jones, W. P. Thomas, Dr. C. B. Smith, Miss Kate Alexander, Benj. Woodford, Sr., W. D. Wills, Mrs. Sallie W. Spears, Miss Elizabeth Spears, John Leer, Deposit Bank of Millersburg.

The committee had not tabulated the money and pledges received up to last night, but Chairman S. E. Bedford stated there was yet about $10,000 to be raised by next Friday night.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP DRIVE INAUGURATED YESTERDAY.

A meeting of the precinct chairmen and their assistants who are to conduct the drive for the sale of War Savings Stamps was held at the court house Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. County Chairman Silas E. Bedford presided.

All the workers were present and manifested keen interest in the proceedings. The purpose of the meeting was to perfect plans and instruct the chairmen and assistants in their duties.

The big drive began yesterday morning, when the workers in the city and county began a systematic house-to-house canvas of their territory. At noon yesterday two workers who had only been able to devote two hours of their time to the work, told THE NEWS men they had secured over $750, and had not called on over one-eighth of the people in their territory. This augurs well for the rest of the week if the average is kept up. The drive is now on in earnest until the night of June 28.

At a meeting held in Clintonville, Friday night an inspiring address was made by Hon. Claude M. Thomas. At this meeting the sum of $4,560 was raised in a short time, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. North Middleton has made a handsome showing by adding the sum of $8,685 to its contribution. Other precincts in the county are coming forward nicely. Up to last night the War Savings Stamp Limit Honor Roll, composed of those who have subscribed or pledged themselves to take the limit, $1,000, had reached a total of 147.

The headquarters of the War Savings Stamp Campaign Committee is in the Broadway side of the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Co., with Miss Elizabeth Steele, county chairman, in charge, with a corps of assistants. Stamps may be secured there in any quantity, from $5.00 on up to the $1,000 limit. Miss Steele and her helpers are at the headquarters every day ready to receive contributions.

The following names have been added to the list of limit subscribers since Saturday: Mrs. A. G. Jones, Miss Ina Jones, W. P. Thomas, Dr. C. B. Smith, Miss Kate Alexander, Benj. Woodford, Sr., W. D. Wills, Mrs. Sallie W. Spears, Miss Elizabeth Spears, John Leer, Deposit Bank of Millersburg.

The committee had not tabulated the money and pledges received up to last night, but Chairman S. E. Bedford stated there was yet about $10,000 to be raised by next Friday night.

STATE EPWORTH LEAGUE AT HARRODSBURG THIS WEEK

The ninth annual assembly of the Kentucky Conference, Epworth League, will be held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Harrodsburg from Tuesday, June 25 to 28. Miss Elizabeth Clark, president of the Harrodsburg chapter, will deliver the welcome address, and Dennis V. Snapp, of Paris, President of the Kentucky Conference, Epworth League, will make the response and address to the conference. The election of officers will take place at the afternoon session on Friday.

RED CROSS CANARIES TO BE DISPOSED OF TO-MORROW.

At the real estate office of the Ossian Edwards Real Estate Agency, on Main street, in this city, at eleven o'clock to-morrow morning, the two fine canaries, which had been donated for Red Cross purposes by Mrs. Frankie Paton, will be given away, literally speaking. They will be disposed of under a system which insures all a fair chance to become owner of one or both of the birds.

The singers, which had been named "General Pershing" and "Jack Pershing," for patriotic reasons, are fine specimens of the canary breed and were raised by Mrs. Paton, in this city. Much interest has been manifested in the disposition of the canaries, and a large crowd will be present to-morrow morning when the affair takes place. Everybody invited to come.

PERSHING DENIES REPORTS REGARDING COLORED SOLDIERS

Formal denial of reports circulated in this country, presumably by German agents, that negro soldiers with the American Expeditionary Forces are being given more dangerous work than the white troops, was called to the War Department by General Pershing. The message said the negroes were in high spirits and that their only complaint was that they were not given more active service.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

True Patriotism.

Once more Bourbon county is going to "go over the top." This time it will be the campaign for the sale of War Savings Stamps. It will be just another slap in the face of those treacherous, skulking German propagandists who have tried in vain to make the world believe that we were a close-fisted, money-loving nation, too miserly to give our dollars to the cause.

What a rude awakening it will be for those plunderers when they hear of the good work we have been doing, even here in the little county of Bourbon, and the little city of Paris! But, then, we will be there, and in the parlance of the day, "we will be there with our heads up and feet flying over the top." Wilhelm and his murderous gang will be sure to hear from old Bourbon and the State of Kentucky, and we wonder what the effect will be on that select assembly of Imperial Murderers, who wear the cloak of royalty, and have plunged humanity into such unspeakable sorrow.

This should be the spirit of our giving to the War Savings Stamp campaign in this county:

"We'll give, give, give. We'll sacrifice our last dollars, mortgage our homes, wear patched clothes and our last year's hats. We'll do all of this, and more, if necessary, for where is the comparison to what the boys in khaki and blue are doing in France to-day for us, our homes and our country. No, we'll not care if Miss Elizabeth Steele carries the campaign over another week, for we're going to subscribe, each and every one of us to the fullest extent of our ability. It will be for a world-wide mission of mercy. We are playing the greatest game the world has ever known. Our very lives and the lives of our friends, our relatives, our children, are at stake. So, just keep on asking us, Uncle Sam! Make your requests as big and as often as needed. We'll be there with the last cent. Our generous responses in the past to the Red Cross and the Liberty Loans have proven to your satisfaction that we'll arise to every call. Our constant prayers are centered on those heroes and heroines in France. We have gone into the game to win—and win we will—and we'll not stop until the Hun is driven to cover and our Bourbon county boys come home covered with glory and honors won on the battlefields of Europe."

The city of Paris and the county of Bourbon are but small patches on the great footstool called Earth, but thank Heavens, the way they have come up in the campaigns of the past have made them look to many of us as big as the city of New York, and as tremendous as the State of Texas. Now, all together, and let's make Miss Steele have to borrow the Coop & Lent circus motor trucks to carry the funds to the bank when the drive is over!

Many Men of Many Minds.

Every man has a different idea as to what should be done to win the war. This has been the case in every great event of the world's history. It only goes to show that no single way is sufficient. All we can do, then, is our own bit, having implicit faith in the wisdom of those men upon whose shoulders the real burden rests.

Many men are complaining because the breweries continue to run, while there is urgent need of the foodstuffs and other legitimate commodities. Other people are lamenting over the fact that large areas of rich lands are being used for the raising of tobacco, instead of using this same acreage for the raising of corn and wheat and potatoes. Still others are loud in their criticisms of the thousands of dogs that are kept and fed—and it is true that but few of these dogs are of any public value.

Governments are not all-powerful, and they hesitate to do many things that look like obvious needs to the average citizen. Personally, we can't see why the President shouldn't go ahead and mind his own business as well as the business of the country at large. But if he undertook to regulate all the things complained of there would be such an upheaval in the country that he would have very little peace. And especially would such be the case if he undertook to send agents all through the country to kill off all the dogs. Now, wouldn't there be a protest and howl, not only from the dogs, but from their owners? You know it.

Some of the problems in this world that look really very small are in reality the very biggest ones. Gradually these things are going to be eliminated for the momentum of public sentiment is irresistible in the long run, though to the thoughtless observer there appears to be no movement going on.

The big moral of this editorial is—have confidence in the perception of heads of the Government, for their eyes are open night and day, and they are always watching. When the time comes to put the ban on any condition detrimental to our national life, it will be done and done thoroughly, too. There is an old saying: "They that govern most make the least noise. You see, when they row in a barge, they that do the drudgery work, slash and puff and sweat, but he that governs them sits quietly in the stern, and is scarce seen to stir."

Protect the Baby.

The season has arrived when babies have begun to drink fly poison and roll in sticky fly paper in intervals of falling into carelessly placed tubs of water.

Families with babies have no business using fly poison. Little legs are active, little hands reach for everything and little mouths think the world was made to taste. Fly traps and stick paper are safe, and they will do as much as poison in eradicating flies. The baby who knocks down a fly trap does no damage and if he experiments with the sticky paper he is only fit for the bath tub. But the baby who drinks fly poison seldom lives to profit by the experience.

All To The Good.

While all the world is tops-a-turvy, jerky and panicky, we hear of but mighty few farmers making assignments. And while they often feel they are oppressed of the nation, yet, after all, how little they know of the sudden reverses of fortune, from wealth to pauperism, and a struggle for life in the uncertain speculative world. They are the "reserves" which the army of the nation can drop back to and start anew to victory.

Automobile vs. Team.

Some complaint has come regarding the giving of half the road in case of an automobile coming up behind a team. The parties claim that when they come up behind a fellow with a team he stubbornly refuses to give any of the road, no matter if there is plenty of room to turn out. Now the law recognizes the right of both the man with the team and the man with auto, and these rights should be respected. There are plenty of men who are running autos who should be driving ox teams and visa versa, but all men should not be treated that way. The law says that when a man is overtaken by a faster vehicle, the man driving the slower vehicle shall turn out and give half of the beaten path.

Now, All Together!

There should be no faction in our little city. There should be a mutual interest in property of our people. When we see indifference to the well-being of its citizens, we see a town all wise men shun. Success and failure are each a part of life and often those who have made the hardest fight are vanquished in the race.

Governments are not all-powerful, and they hesitate to do many things that look like obvious needs to the average citizen. Personally, we can't see why the President shouldn't go ahead and mind his own business as well as the business of the country at large. But if he undertook to regulate all the things complained of there would be such an upheaval in the country that he would have very little peace. And especially would such be the case if he undertook to send agents all through the country to kill off all the dogs. PRESIDENT PARDONS SENTRIES SENTENCED TO DEATH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24.—In granting unconditional pardon to two young soldiers sentenced to death for having slept on post at the front, President Wilson expected his action to act "as a challenge to devoted service for the future." The text of his order, identical in both cases and made public, says:

"In view of the youth of Privates Forrest D. Sebastian and Jeff Cook and the fact that their offense seems to have been wholly free from disloyalty or conscious disregard of their duty, I hereby grant them a full and unconditional pardon and direct that they report to their company for further military duty."

"The needs of discipline in the army with propriety impose grave penalties upon those who imperil the safety of their fellows and endanger their country's cause by lack of vigilance, or by infractions of rules in which safety has been found to rest. I am persuaded, however, that these young men will take the restored opportunity of their forfeited life as a challenge to devoted service for the future and that the soldiers of the army of the United States in France will realize too keenly the high character of the cause for which they are fighting, and the confidence which their country reposes in them, to permit the possibility of further danger from any similar shortcomings."

TAX ASSESSOR TO BEGIN WORK THIS YEAR ON JULY 1.

Attention has been called to the fact that State and county tax assessments are made this year as of July 1 instead of September 1, as heretofore. This is under a law passed by the last General Assembly and is similar to the law in numerous other States. Under the old law merchants and others had to take two inventories, one in July, which was the usual stock-taking period, and one at September 1 for tax purposes. Now only one inventory need be taken.

It was the practice heretofore to delay laying in stocks until after September 1 to save paying excessive taxes. Business was in a measure delayed thereby. It is also pointed out that the farmers in paying taxes as of September 1 were doing so on property that was sold about as soon as it was taxed.

The new date for assessing property does not change the date for paying taxes. It does give the Board of Supervisors a longer time in which to do its work, making it possible to equalize valuations more equitably.

The only danger of confusion because of the change in date is the fact that the date for assessing city taxes is still September 1. The attention of the city taxing authorities has been called to the change in the date for assessing the State taxes with a view to having the city also make the change. This can be done by ordinance. If the city continues to use September 1 as the date for assessments the confusion would result from the fact that returns made to the State and county as of July 1 and the city as of September 1 would not be the same and the tax payment to the two units would be on different bases. The city has until September 1 to change the taxing date.

KENTUCKY AND TEXAS OIL FIELDS LARGE PRODUCERS

The Kentucky and Texas oil fields are the only oil fields in the country that are not on the decline. This statement was made at the Rotary Club meeting in Lexington by W. S. Mitchell, of Philadelphia, who is looking over the Kentucky territory.

The total oil production of the world, said Mr. Mitchell, is now about 460,000,000 barrels a year, of which the United States is producing something like 80 per cent.

It has been estimated that after the war, with the rapid increase in the use of oil for ocean vessels, the demand will be twice as great as it is to-day, and production will have to reach 900,000,000 barrels a year to meet demands.

Mr. Mitchell said that the Kentucky field, if properly developed and favorably treated, would be a tremendous asset to the State.

At the present rate of operation upward of $10,000,000 a year soon will be paid out in the form of wages to Kentucky people, employed in the industry.

We saw a man recently who claimed he had never been out of sugar, flour or coal since the war began. We didn't know he had a secret store of these things, but he must have.

Scolding and nagging never mend anything. They have ruined the peace of unnumbered families.

There are a thousand ways of making other people happy, and you have only to look about to find them.

JAPAN OFFERING BONUS TO AUTOMOBILE BUYERS

Japan has offered every purchaser of an automobile or truck in the empire $500 toward the purchase price, and $150 yearly to help pay for the maintenance of the vehicle, in exchange for the privilege of speedily commandeering motors when the occasion demands, according to advices received by the foreign sales department of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company.

This subsidy is intended by the imperial government not only for the quick requisitioning of cars, but also to promote their use and to eventually encourage their manufacture within the empire. This aggressive action by Japan and most of the trucking is by men who pull two-wheeled carts—most of the passenger traffic on the streets and highways is by means of jinrikishas.

Labor is in strong demand and a more general use of motor vehicles would release thousands of men for work in factories.

Japan's action will add impetus to the export of American-made cars and tires, say Goodrich officials.

It will be several years before Japan will be able to produce anywhere near her own consumption of motor vehicles and accessories. But three concerns in Japan are now building automobiles. One of these has made about a half a dozen cars and another is assembling from parts imported from America. Two large Japanese shipbuilding companies are erecting automobile factories.

HEIGHT OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

According to geographers, the average height above the sea of the different countries of Europe is as follows, stated in feet: Holland, 150; Belgium, 335; Russia, 550; Germany, 607; Great Britain, 712; Romania, 922; Denmark (including Iceland), 1,155; France, 1,200; Scandinavia (Norway and Sweden), 1,404; Italy, 1,664; Austria, 1,698; Balkan peninsula, 1,900; Spain and Portugal, 2,296; Switzerland, 4,263.

From this it would appear that the largest, Russia, is the third lowest, and that the third smallest, Switzerland, is the highest.

THE CIRCUS.

The circus is the typical American amusement. It is an institution that builds a distinct town every day. It is as attractive to the tottering old as to the bubbling young, and no matter how wise, blame or sour the man, the circus is sure to touch him at some human interest point. For a time it looked as if the circus, the idol of young America, would not make its annual appearance. Uncle Sam needed all the available locomotives and rolling stock to transport his vast army and supplies across the country. Heads of various circuses made frequent trips to Washington to consult the powers that be, but were given very little encouragement.

Coop & Lent were among the big circus owners to visit Mr. McAdoo with no satisfactory arrangement promised.

Then came the big idea. Why not put the Coop & Lent circus on motorized auto trucks? The government uses them, and many are making successful trips between various cities. Coop & Lent's progressive showmen got busy and soon their new idea was a reality—ninety-six stupendous trucks and autos were ordered, built and delivered within thirty days, and now the hearts of the kiddies, brother, sister, mother, father, grandma and grandpa will be made happy for on Tuesday, June 25, the great Coop & Lent's three ring circus and menagerie with all its novelties and splendor, bands of music, herds of elephants, ponies, hundreds of gymnasts, riders and athletes, and thirty-two famous clowns will surely glide into Paris on above date. Ten cars of tents will house this mammoth aggregation early in the morning and at 10:30 a.m. the gorgeous, glittering pageant will leave the grounds for the daily parade, emerging from the beaten path into new avenues of wonderment, a gigantic modern motorized circus parade. Of course there are many highly bred horses with the big circus, but they are used for exhibition only. Stellar performers from all parts of the world except Germany will take part in the two performances given at 2 and 8 p.m. The doors will be opened one hour earlier to give you time to visit the most wonderful Zoo in the world.

To Protect Birds From Cats.

The pole supporting a martin-house, or any other birdhouse, and also the trunk of a tree in which a house is placed, should be protected by a cut guard, writes George Gladden in an article on birdhouse construction in the People's Home Journal. Barbed wire wound around the trunk of the tree, but held away from it by tying around the support or tree trunk, a number of stalks of rose bushes or any other branches with natural thorns.

COUNTY ASSESSOR TO LIST TAX ASSESSMENTS JULY 1.

Preparations are being completed for taking both the county and State tax assessments on July 1, as provided for in an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, which makes it necessary to take only one assessment for these two taxes each year, and that on July 1, instead of July 1 and September 1, as heretofore.

Under the old law merchants and others were required to take two inventories, one in July, which was the usual stock-taking period, and the other in September, for tax purposes. Now, under the new law, according to County Clerk Pearce Paton, only one inventory need be taken. The County Assessor is now getting ready for the work. It was formerly a practice among the merchants and others to delay taking in stocks until after September 1, to prevent the paying of excessive taxes, and in this manner business was delayed.

The new date for assessing property does not change the date for paying taxes, though, according to Clerk Paton, it does give the Board of Supervisors a longer period in which to do its work, making it possible to equalize valuations more equitably.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

When Judge R. L. Stout convened the Bourbon Circuit Court Friday morning counsel for Oscar Johnson, who was given the death sentence Thursday for the killing of Walter A. Rice, offered motion and grounds for a new trial. The hearing of the motion was set for the third day of the November term of court.

The trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Henry Harp for killing Jos. Willoughby, was continued until Wednesday, June 26. Harp's counsel, Maury Kemper, of Lexington, could not be present, as he was acting Judge of the Fayette Circuit Court in the absence of Judge Charles Kerr.

The grand jury made its final report and was discharged. The jury returned nine true bills and stated to the Court: "We have investigated the matter of disloyal acts and speeches in the county and have ordered such information as we have obtained sent to the United States authorities."

The Grand Jury before adjourning visited the County Jail and Infirmary, and complimented Jailer Thos. Taull and Keeper Jos. Godman on the efficient way in which they conducted their respective institutions.

The Grand Jury refused to consider the case of Jouett Elmore, six-year-old son of Clarence Elmore, of Cypress street, which was referred to it by the Paris Police Court, after a Paris woman had a summons issued against the child, charging that he was a public nuisance by roller skating and "playing soldier" on the streets in the vicinity.

No business was transacted in court Saturday on account of the absence of Judge Stout, who was compelled to go to Frankfort on official business. Court was adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock, when the regular docket will be resumed.

An appeal from the decision of Special Judge George R. Hunt, of Lexington, who presided at the trial in the County Court of the Commonwealth vs. the estate of P. J. Millett for back taxes, was filed Saturday by Attorney R. J. Colbert, of Lexington. The case will now come to the Circuit Court for a hearing.

The matter of furnishing a sufficient supply of water for extinguishing fires, and for domestic and drinking purposes, which has furnished grounds for a controversy between the City of Paris and the Paris Water Co., was not taken up by the Grand Jury, to whom it was referred. That body declined to take any action in the matter and passed it up.

Mayor E. B. January and members of the Paris City Council were summoned before the grand jury, and explained to the members what they knew about the situation. They could not, however, produce a contract with the Paris Water Co., that having expired. The Paris Milling Co. is also interested in the matter, as the mill dam at their plant is the only barrier holding back a sufficient stage of water for the purposes indicated.

Through the Mayor and a special committee from the City Council, it is hoped to bring the issue to a head and secure a new dam for the water during this summer. Such an action will soon become imperative, as the old dam is rapidly going to decay, gaps having been torn in it by the high water, which has undermined the structure. Paris is in danger of a water famine unless the disagreeing elements get together and effect a compromise whereby all will be in their proportion gainer.

NAVAL RECRUITING OFFICE APPEALS FOR MORE MEN.

With nearly every branch of the service open, the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, 412 South Fourth street, Louisville, is making an appeal for more recruits. Nearly three thousand men joined from Kentucky during the last two months, but more are needed at once for active service on the high seas.

"The local draft boards have now received instructions to release men registered on June 5, 1918, for service in the navy," said Lieut. H. H. Teach, the recruiting officer for Kentucky. "The War Department Bulletin No. 135 covers this point, and we hope that the young registrants will consider joining the naval forces. We can promise them service in a branch for which they are fitted by education and training. Nearly every trade is open—automobile mechanics, truck drivers, stenographers and painters, are among the many needed. All questions regarding the service will be gladly answered by mail or in person at our main office at Louisville, or at any of the sub-stations at Ashland, Covington, Lexington, Bowling Green, Owensboro, or Paducah."

SUDDEN DEATH OVERTAKES FARMER IN FIELD.

Mr. James Cummins, a well-known farmer of the Old Union precinct, aged sixty-two, dropped dead in the harvest field on his farm on the Hunne and Bedford pike, near this city, yesterday afternoon, while at work.

Mr. Cummins and two sons were engaged in harvesting a big hay crop. Mr. Cummins had been pitching hay to one of the boys and was laughing and jesting with him about the way in which he was throwing the hay, when suddenly he staggered and fell to the ground. The boys hastily came to his aid, and summoned help from the house nearby, but Mr. Cummins was beyond all earthly aid before the response could be made. He had been in apparently good health up to the time he was stricken.

Coroner Rudolph Davis was summoned and after conducting an investigation, decided an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Cummins had recently purchased the farm on which he met his death, and had devoted a great deal of time and energy in getting it in shape to enjoy its benefits. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Julia Mansfield, of Scott county; Misses Hannah and Mary Cummins, who resided at the home, and five sons, Leslie, who is in the army service in France; Owen, who is in the navy; James, who is engaged in army work in Dayton, Ohio, and Lisle and William, who are at home, and who were with their father at the time he received his fatal stroke.

Physicians ascribed Mr. Cummins' death to a stroke of apoplexy. The funeral arrangements have not been completed pending the arrival of his son from Dayton.

QUESTION OF THE HOUR: "WHAT AM I DOING?"

Citizens of Bourbon county, ask yourselves this question: "What am I doing toward helping my country win the war?" If you are not doing something, don't you think you are a very lukewarm American?

The Government doesn't ask very much of you. The few dimes spent in many reckless ways each week if invested in War Savings Stamps will go a long way toward swelling the sum total of the money need for war purposes.

The Government merely asks you to do without unnecessary things and invest the money saved thereby in securities. You can buy War Savings Stamps and assist the Nation.

Remember that every time you purchase a stamp, which is redeemable in gold in 1923, you are firing a shot at Berlin that will be just as effective in a way as the ones the boys in the trenches are sending with their compliments to the murderous hordes who are endeavoring to stifle civilization.

Fire at Somersett destroyed $15,000 worth of property, mostly shops and restaurants. The business houses burned are: R. L. Eastham, Harlan Cundiff, Andrew Sears and George Smith. Every store on the north side of Mt. Vernon avenue suffered damage. Most of the buildings were old structures and fell easy prey to the flames. FRANCE PREPARES FOR BIG CELEBRATION JULY FOURTH.

If preparations already under way may be taken as a criterion, the coming Fourth of July will be celebrated by the French in a manner which is unprecedented. Maurice Damour, a member of the French Chamber of Deputies, has written a long article for the Journal calling upon all Frenchmen to join in the celebration. He writes:

"The Fourth of July is as much a French holiday as American. It is a world holiday. France must not content itself with a few official manifestations. The whole people of France must celebrate. All the houses in Paris and the provinces must be decorated with French and American flags. Processions must be organized in Paris. Flowers must be deposited before the statue of Washington and the American flag must be raised at the same hour in all cities, towns and villages of France. In all the schools at the moment the teachers should explain the meaning of the celebration and the reason why France and America should remain forever."

NO FIREWORKS FOR PARIS ON THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

No fireworks will be allowed in Paris on the Glorious Fourth of July, or, for that matter, at any other time of the year, according to a statement from Mayor E. B. January and Chief of Police Link. The city has an ordinance prohibiting the use of these dangerous playthings at any time, especially on the streets and highways, where they are liable to cause accident, and loss of life limb.

The custom has become universal all through the United States, and it is believed that not one Roman candle, skyrocket, or any of the glorious reminders of our younger and more youthful days will puncture the atmosphere on the "day we are all proud to celebrate." The police will be especially active in detecting any violations of the ordinance and will arrest anyone found violating any of its provisions. There will likely be some kind of patriotic demonstration to remind us of one of the greatest events in our National history, but it is hardly likely that the festive fireworks display will be a part of it.

WORK OR FIGHT LAW DOES NOT APPLY TO SCHOOL TEACHERS.

County Superintendent J. B. Caywood has been advised from Frankfort that in an opinion addressed to Mr. Houston Quinn, City Attorney of Louisville, Attorney-General Morris holds that the new vagrancy law does not apply to school teachers during vacation.

Attorney-General Morris said that it is generally understood that school teachers require a vacation after their long school terms, and that they are prohibited by law from teaching on Saturdays. He says the law should be given a reasonable construction and a rigid enforcement.

ENTERPRISING WAR GARDEN

Out on Stoner Avenue, near the intersection of Vine street, there is a narrow strip of land, probably one hundred feet long by about six feet in width, at the top of the steep bank sloping down to Stoner Creek, which has been converted into a war garden by a resident of the immediate vicinity.

The narrow strip of waste land is now supporting a bountiful growth of vegetables, beans, potatoes, beets, and other forms of health-giving and life-supporting vegetables. The "garden" is as carefully tended as those of its more pretentious neighbors, and, though situated on the side of a dusty and much-traveled roadway, is kept well-watered and seems to be flourishing.

W. S. STAMPS SLACKERS TO BE RECORDED.

Persons who do not own and who refuse to buy War Savings Stamps will be recorded on yellow cards and the reason for the refusal opened to public inspection, according to suggestions recently made from headquarters.

The movement is Statewide, and all County Chairmen will be supplied with the cards. The order reads in part: "The purchase of Liberty Loans, the contributions to the Red Cross and to the War Chest, are not an excuse for a failure to buy War Savings Stamps."

A house-to-house canvass will be made by the committee and the solicitors. So don't be a slacker!

SATURDAY RECORDED AS LONG-EST DAY OF YEAR.

Saturday, June 22, will go down in history as being not only the longest day in the year, but one of the very longest Paris has ever known.

Because of the change of time when the National clock jumped up one hour, the sun seemed to rise earlier, and bade fair to last longer than on any other occasion since the United States adopted a universal time.

In addition to the unusual length of the day it will go on record as having been one of the coolest days for June for many years. At night a chilly wind sprang up, and the mercury dropped several degrees. Extra covers were in demand when Paris people retired to their nightly sleep. It became necessary to wear wraps and shirt-sleeved men found their coats not at all uncomfortable. The cool wave continued until late Sunday afternoon, when the temperature gradually arose to a comfortable degree.

CITIZENS OF PARIS READ! THIS CONCERN'S YOU!

Public notice has frequently been given that you should boil all water used for domestic or drinking purposes, whether it be from hydrant, well, cistern or spring. There may be water-borne disease at any time of the year, more especially, however during the late summer and autumn months.

This Board has no information to suspect such disease or diseases presently, yet it realizes such possibility, and the object of this notice is to protect the public against any danger from this source.

Don't be unfair and say you have never seen nor heard of this notice. The quickest means to reach all the people is through city's local papers, hence this communication.

Again, WATER-BORNE DISEASES ARE ABSOLUTELY PREVENTED BY BOILING WATER. Will you heed this admonition or will you wilfully or negligently pursue the even tenor of your way and regard this notice as worthless? It is up to you. Antiques in furniture may be all right. In milldams they are dangerous, and this Board so condemns. Changes in treatment of the water supply have been recently suggested and are now in operation.

VOLUNTEERS DOING GOOD WORK

Farmers who were in the city on business yesterday state that the volunteer workers in the harvest fields of the county have been doing excellent work. The farmers have shown them a little more consideration than the older experienced workers, as a matter of course, but at that they state the men and boys have shown a surprising willingness and many of them went at it with a spirit and a hearty good will that was encouraging. By the help thus gained several hundred acres of wheat have been harvested that might have been yet in the shock but for this timely aid.

The patriotic side of the men has had a stimulating effect upon loafers who have been holding out for $5.00 and $6.00 per day for harvest field work. Now that the new volunteer law is in effect and the volunteers are in the fields the ex-loafers are glad to get jobs at $3.00 and $4.00 per day, which is considered good wages. Glowing reports are given by the volunteers of the excellent dinners served them by the wives of the farmers.

TEACHING OF SPANISH IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF NEW YORK

(Reproduced from the New York American by El Heraldo, of New York, and translated again into English by Prof. G. Brittain Lyttle.)

"Mayor Hyland is just right in favoring the teaching of Spanish in the public schools of the city. The idea is wise and opportune."

"But not only in the city of New York, but in all the public educational organizations of the country should Spanish be diligently taught. And in order to do so, a beginning should be made at once, and the movement vigorously prosecuted to install Spanish as an indispensable course in all the educational systems of the whole country. It is an incontrovertible fact that Spanish is spoken predominantly as a National language, if not exclusively, in three-fourths of the Western Hemisphere in which we live, and not only on the great continent of South America, but also in Cuba, in the Philippines, the West Indies and in Mexico."

"The great Republics of South America since the completion of the Panama Canal, are our nearest neighbors, and for many reasons those with whom we have greatest relationship and business intercourse. Although the three Americas have always been united geographically, the last few years have multiplied the reasons for the establishment of mutually helpful relationships for the benefit of all, between all three, politically, commercially and socially."

"And now that the bond of sympathy created by the cataclysmic struggle in which are being welded by danger and by necessity our common humanity of liberty and independence has brought us closer together than ever, we realize forcibly our mutual dependence upon each other for good."

"The European war has made of the three Americas a single entity in their sentiments and commerce. Their commercial relations, of themselves important, will become yet stronger in future, on account of the natural interests of all these countries. But better than that, has been the fact that the high ideals and the splendid lack of egotism with which our country has thrown herself into and is battling in the war, has removed entirely the apprehension and distrust with which the countries of the South were wont to regard the North. In the future, the South American countries can entertain no misgivings of any idea of aggression or commercial or territorial ambition on the part of the United States toward them. It is already written that, as a result of the world war, the three Americas shall live more united and more cordial in every sense than they have done in the past. In consequence, it is necessary in all respects, whether from business, social or political considerations, that these two languages, English and Spanish, should be learned reciprocally among all the American countries in order that there may be free exchange of ideas and social intercourse sustained by the power of conversation whenever or wherever expedient. In the Spanish-American countries they are studying English. It would therefore appear impolite and discourteous for us not to meet them halfway with our vocabularies united and bound together by cordial co-operation."

"The Mayor of New York will employ his increasing executive influence and his authority for the prompt introduction of Spanish into the metropolitan public schools. Mr. Hyland could not begin any too soon. The notice in the Spanish-American countries, that New York, the metropolis and the Empire State of the Union, has formally adopted Spanish as an integral feature of the course of study of its educational institutions, will evoke response cordial in sentiment and action throughout those generous and impulsive countries of the South, and the 'Union of Tongues' shall have progressed sufficiently by the end of the war, to become the precursor of a logical union of friendship and business interests among the American Republics, for all future time, it is believed."

"In the introduction of the Spanish language in the schools of New York as preliminary to its general establishment in the organism of the educational system of the whole country, there is a touch of true statesmanship. This should have been thought of before. Undoubtedly it is now opportune. And let there be no unnecessary delay in putting into practice so excellent an idea."

The father of Mr. Hearst, owner of the New York American, had sojourned in Spanish-America long before becoming United States Senator from California, and the son's newspaper has evidently acquired accurate impressions relating to American interests in Spanish-America. Would that they might become more general throughout our country.

Hemp Reduces Friction.

It has been discovered that a hemp rope twisted in and out of the links of an iron chain will make the chain last 70 per cent longer by reducing friction, and save from one-fifth to one-third of the price of a new chain.

If a man dares to live within his means, and is resolute in his purpose not to appear more than he really is, let him be applauded. There is something fresh and rare in such an example.

CARELESS HANDLING OF REVOLVER CAUSES BOYS' DEATH.

A distressing accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Huffman on North Main street, in Cynthiana, resulting in the death of Walter Crawford.

Tom Huffman, aged 20, who is employed by the W. B. Rouse Company, and Crawford, who were close friends, were preparing to go fishing. Huffman was handling an old model revolver, and was pushing the cartridges out of the cylinder. While thus engaged he is alleged to have accidentally pulled the trigger. The bullet passed over the shoulder of his little sister, Edith, who was in the room with him, and powder-burned her dress. It struck young Crawford, who was in the yard, the ball entering his skull near the temple. He fell unconscious and died in a few hours.

Young Huffman is greatly distressed over the accident, as he and Crawford were most intimate friends.

The dead boy was almost 19 years of age and was employed by Clarence LeBus. He was the son of Mrs. Amandy Crawford. His father, Geo. Crawford, died in Tennessee, about four months ago.

For a nation to make peace only because it is tired of war, and, as it were, in order just to take breath, is in direct subversion of the end and object of the war which was its sole justification. WORTH $2,500,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 24.—A trust fund of $50,000, to be held for 500 years, the income from which is to be divided each fifty years and expended for social welfare work is set aside from the estate of the late Charles W. Fairbanks, former Vice President of the United States, as a memorial to his wife, by his will filed for probate here Wednesday. The value of the entire estate is estimated at $2,150,000.

A number of charitable bequests are made in the will, among those in addition to the $50,000 trust fund being one of the Ohio Wesleyan University of $25,000 and another of $50,000 to the Methodist Hospital and Deaconess Home in Indianapolis.

An income of $15,000 a year is provided for Mr. Fairbank's daughter, Mrs. John W. Timmons. Provisions for his three sons include giving each of them an annual income of $10,000 a year from the revenues of the personal property of the estate if they desire to accept.

The will makes numerous bequests to old servants in the Fairbanks home, DePauw University at Greencastle, Ind., is given $25,000.

After payment of the various specific bequests the remainder of the estate is to go to the sons, Richard, Warren and Fred Fairbanks. The personal property was comparatively small, being estimated at $150,000, while the real estate was estimated to be worth $2,000,000 at least.

SAID THAT HINDENBURG'S MIND IS GOING.

GENEVA, June 24.—The Tribune says it learns from a reliable source that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is suffering from an acute nervous disease; that his mental capacity is much affected, and that he is confined in a private sanitarium. The newspaper adds that Hindenburg took no responsible part in the recent offensive on the western front, the work being chiefly done by General Ludendorff.

PRESIDENT CALLSON ALL LOYAL MEN

LET NONE BE UNENLISTED ON DAY SET APART FOR STAMP SALE.

FRIDAY, JUNE TWENTY-EIGHT

Great Opportunity Offered to Help Win the War By Signing the Pledge in Response to Wishes of Our Leader in Great Struggle for Democracy.

The President of the United States has called upon the loyal men and women of America to pledge themselves to save for victory. He has issued an earnest appeal to all Americans to buy War Savings Stamps as regularly as possible, investing in this form of security the money saved through avoiding needless expenditures.

"The 28th of June ends this special period of enlistment in the greatest volunteer army of production and saving here at home. MAY THERE BE NONE UNENLISTED ON THAT DAY."

What loyal American will refuse to respond to this appeal issued by the executive head of this nation and the commander-in-chief of our armed forces?

We have the opportunity to enlist in this "volunteer army of production and saving." In Germany it is a matter of compulsion. The iron hand of the German autocracy forced it harshly upon the German people, depriving them not merely of luxuries, but of the bare necessities of life. We are asked in America to voluntarily postpone our needless luxuries so that our soldiers and sailors may not lack their necessary equipment. What the German nation does under rigid compulsion, certainly Americans will do in a mild way voluntarily. It is unthinkable that there is a man, woman or child in America who will refuse to sign the pledge to save and to invest a portion of the savings in War Savings Stamps.

We must respond to the President's solemn appeal—we must sign the pledges, not because we feel forced to, but because it is an opportunity for us to help win the war. The pledges should be signed cheerfully, willingly, gratefully.

When the war is over and the period of readjustment sets in, then will the wisdom and the soundness of the War Savings movement become strikingly apparent to all. There is now more money in circulation than ever before in the history of the world, and this condition is likely to prevail after the war is over. But it is not the nation which has merely money that will have the advantage in the coming days of reconstruction, but rather the nation which has the most available supply of goods and material of all kinds.

When an individual invests in War Savings Stamps he is not merely saving money. He is saving, in reality, the material which would otherwise have bought. It is not lack of money that worries Germany—it is the lack of necessary materials. A government can practically create money, but it can not create material.

When the war is over it is predicted that all nations will compete in South American and Oriental trade. If America—at present the nation of greatest resources—conserves her resources—she will naturally be in a position after the war to dominate international trade and maintain the national prosperity. But if we continue to squander goods at the same time that we double our demands by supplying the Government for war purposes, we are wasting labor and material of which we will be in sore need after the war.

DON'T WAIT EVEN A DAY

The attention of every War Savings Stamp worker in Kentucky is directed in particular to one point brought out in President Wilson's appeal urging the purchase of War Savings Stamps. The President says: "I earnestly appeal to every man, woman and child to pledge themselves on or before June 28th." Clearly this means that pledges should be secured from this date on and including June 28.

War Savings workers are urged to make it clear that while June 28th is War Savings Pledge Day, and while the supreme effort for the securing of pledges will be made on that day, the campaign is in reality on from this time forward—meaning from now to and including June 28.

WHAT AM I DOING?

Ask yourself this question: "What am I doing toward helping my country win the war?" If you are not doing something don't you think you are a very lukewarm American?

The Government doesn't ask very much of you. It merely asks you to do without unnecessary things and invest your money saved thereby in securities. You can buy War Savings Stamps and assist the Nation.

Remember that every time you buy a War Savings Stamp, which is redeemable in gold in 1923, you are firing a shot at Berlin.

THOUSANDS OF GERMANS SACRIFICED IN VAIN EFFORT

PARIS, June 24.—Eighty thousand Germans were killed, wounded or made prisoner during the offensive between Montdidier and Noyon, Captain Andrew Tardieu, who accompanied Premier Clemenceau to the front on Sunday, told Marcel Hulin, editor of the Echo de Paris, upon his return to Paris.

"This is a figure which should make even Ludendorff reflect," he said.

"One cannot insist enough upon the exceptional importance of the results obtained by the counter-attacks of divisions under General Mangin against the right flank of General von Hindenburg's armies," he continued. "This magnificent operation has nailed the enemy to the spot and completely checked the advance toward Compiegne. German officers who were made prisoner do not attempt to hide their chagrin at their inability to reach Compiegne, which they admit was their objective."

Premier Clemenceau contented himself by remarking: "I am completely satisfied."

HORSE IS NOT DOOMED.

(Farm and Family.)

Every few years someone, who believes he has the power of prophecy, announces that the horse is doomed. When the railroads first began to send their slender steel rails across the country, supplanting the lazy, lumbering stage coaches, these same prophets announced that the breeding of horses was a thing of the past. Now the number of horses in the country increased from year to year.

Many years passed and the bicycle appeared. Men and boys gave up their saddle horses and began to toughen themselves for long bicycle rides on country roads. Again the prophets came out to tell the people that the horse was a back number. But horses increased throughout the length and breadth of the country as they had for years.

Later the electric cars in the cities turned many horses out of a living. This gave the croakers another opportunity to prophesy some more and they did. Quite recently the automobile, the motorcycle, the auto truck and the tractor have come to take the place of the horse. Yet his numbers have grown and are growing steadily. In fact, statistics prove that the increase year after year is almost the same in spite of all the inventions which have come to supplement him.

A man will grant his wife any right more cheerfully than the right to be sick when he feels bad himself.

He who can suppress a moment's anger may prevent a day of sorrow.

TOBACCO AS A RATION

As to the order of the War Department making tobacco an army ration, the wonder will be that it was not issued long ago. Thus far the chief sources of supply have been private agencies, which, admirably conducted as they are, can hardly have met the situation adequately. By including tobacco among the regular rations, even with a small allowance, the department does more than relieve the expeditionary forces of what in some cases was an expense. It guarantees the delivery of the goods in places beyond the reach of any other instrumentality, benevolent or commercial.

There are many well-meaning people who regard the tobacco habit as a deadly vice, and it is possible that we shall hear from them. We are to remember, however, that with the first arrival of American troops in France, Gen. Pershing authorized the use by them of light wines, as is the custom of the country. If our severe Prohibitionists have not found it necessary to upset the entire war program on this account, perhaps the hardly less abstemious anti-tobacco propaganda will wane at the solace which fighting men may be able to derive daily from two-fifths of an ounce of plug-cut or four soul-destroying cigarettes.

Let a child feel you are displeased not at him, but at the sin he commits. Can an angry parent do this?

Men frequently lose interest in their homes by their failure to make them interesting and pleasant.

J. D. HEDRICK,
(21-2t) Windsor Hotel.AGE LIMIT IN DRAFT MAY BE RAISED TO 45.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Two events of possible far-reaching importance happened at the War Department within a few minutes of each other last Tuesday when Count Macchi di Cellere, the Italian Ambassador, went into conference with Secretary of War Baker—the result of the conference may be evident in the near future—and shortly thereafter Mr. Baker, in response to inquiry, explained to the newspaper men that he would not oppose any action by Congress looking to extend the draft age limit.

There is no connection with the two incidents, but each may have distinct importance. The news that Mr. Baker has modified his position somewhat with respect to the draft age limit is highly important because of its possible future effect on so many thousands—if not hundreds of thousands—of able-bodied American fighting men over 31.

Secretary Baker's position now refutes the theory of that famous Frenchman, De la Rechoucault, who remarked that one is always ready to distrust one's memory but never one's judgment. Mr. Baker's judgment has been that it would be better to stay with the prescribed age limit of 21 to 31, but if the judgment of Congress is otherwise he is ready to consider yielding the point.

It appears that after Secretary Baker's statement to the newspaper correspondent last week that the question of extending the age limit had not been considered by him at all Provost Marshal General Crowder came to him to say that he had been asked to appear before the Senate Military Affairs Committee on the matter of the draft age limit. General Crowder's views were not in harmony with those of Mr. Baker, and the former told the Secretary he had no desire to embarrass the War Department's policy and feared perhaps that his testimony might tend to do so. General Crowder is known to favor in principle an extension of the draft age limit after Class 1 is exhausted, but he has not stated that he favors extending it from 18 to 45. Probably 19 to 36 would be more in line with General Crowder's judgment.

This means that after Class 1 is exhausted General Crowder favors getting men physically fit and without dependents over 31 before taking men with dependents, etc., from Classes 2, 3 and 4. General Crowder expects that all the 2,420,000 of Class 1 will be exhausted by the end of the present year. So far 1,347,000 have already been called into service.

Somebody insists the children need fewer precepts and more good examples.

PLANS AIRCRAFT MOVEMENTS
ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

General Brander, of the British army, has disclosed the fact that the British air council had definitely decided upon trans-Atlantic aircraft flights in order to find a route for movement of American-made aircraft to the front. His mission in this country has to do with arrangements for the pioneer flight in which it is hoped the United States government will co-operate.

It is expected the initial flight will be made this autumn in a machine of British make, probably a seaplane starting from Newfoundland touching at the Azores and Portugal, before arriving in Ireland. It has been estimated the trip can be made in forty hours of flying. Plans under consideration call for crews of four men, composed of an engineer, a relief of pilots, and a navigation officer.
